

Stand 21 is proud to become the new official supplier of Porsche Motorsport racewear collection!

In the nineties Porsche and Stand21 cooperated and developed Porsche's official racewear. In the first place it had been conceived for Porsche works drivers only but then the idea was born to make it available to all Porsche customers. Now, a couple of years later, Porsche comes back to collaborate again with Stand21, who scaled up to the world leader for made-to-measure racewear and continuously evolves safety, comfort and performance of its products. Stand21 especially convinces with its efforts it puts into its "Heat Stress program", designated to improve the driver's performance.
